Worshipful Masters Message

My Brother,

I hope all is well and that everyone is more relaxed as restrictions are being loosened. As I witnessed my nephews recent graduation, I was impressed by the ideas he has for his future which includes improving people around him. His most important goal is to be a Good Man. I couldn't help but wonder how many Brethren truly have that kind of zeal when it comes to their Life, their Masonic life. We should of course as Masons be concerned about our Fellow Man and seeing that the influence of our Masonic Principles is spread to Truly benefit all of us but just saying those words mean nothing if we do not put them into practice.

My Brother Let us always keep in mind that our actions in and out of Lodge are what Masonry looks like to others. We must remember that we came here to improve ourselves in Masonry. Just as the Beehive will fail so too will our Lodge fail if we allow dissention and discord to interrupt its peace and Harmony. This Lodge has been here over 99 years and we must gift our Lodge and Fraternity into the future for the benefit of All Good Men.

Sincerely and Fraternally Craig J. Woodruff WM
