Worshipful Masters Message

Brethren,

As we prepare for our EA degree, I felt it appropriate to highlight the origins of the EA prayer. Throughout many years of memorization of the degree work, only after instruction from past masters, at a DLI, or just from repeating versus repeatedly, do you have an “ah-ha” moment, where you realize what something actually means. The EA prayer originates from the Book of Psalms, which is sometimes referred to as the “songs of degrees “. The book of Psalms presents a wide range of human experiences: men burdened with affliction, struggling with temptation, or triumphing in the hope or enjoyment of deliverance. Admiring perfection of the Divinity, thanking God for his mercies, meditating on His truths, or delighting in His service. All of these and more are exhibited in the Book of Psalms. It is speculated the King David wrote Psalm 133. “Behold how good and how pleasant it is for Brethren to dwell together in unity.” By opening with the word “Behold”, he is telling us to observe or take note of the joy and pleasure that is derived from unity or harmony among brethren. This peaceful unity is of extreme importance to Masons as it is the cement which binds us together. Peace and harmony are the strengths of our fraternity. “It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aarons beard, that went down to the skirts of his garment.” Oil was use for anointing, to bless them, to give them strength, health, joy and beauty. It is also a sign of rejoicing and respect. During King David’s later years, he chose Solomon over his older brothers to rule Israel, and had him publicly anointed as his successor.

Aaron, Moses brother and spokesmen, stood as the personification of High Priesthood, and the representation of the Hebrew nation. The copious anointing which poured down over his garments symbolizes the solidarity of Israel. “As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion, for there the Lord commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.” Mount Hermon is the highest mountain in the region of Palestine.

This dew was known as nature’s way of compensating for her failure to give rain, and symbolizes refreshment. This dew was necessary for the crops to survive throughout the summer growing season, after the spring rains and before the rains in the fall. This dew was essential to sustain life itself. Palestine was as desolate as the desert until the brethren came together in brotherly fellowship. Then, like the dew of Hermon, they brought freshness and life, and the resurrection of ideals. There, God decreed the blessing upon this great brotherhood, which would mean life and prosperity forever, a promise by God, of his blessing of immortality, an endowment for obedience to God’s law, for following God’s way of life. Unity is essential in a Masonic Lodge. The 133rd Psalm highlights the necessities of brotherly love and unity, which is why this scripture is an integral part of the Entered Apprentice degree.

Sincerely and Fraternally

Joke Corner

In a Catholic school cafeteria, a nun places a note in front of a pile of apples, "Only take one, God is watching." Further down the line is a pile of cookies. A little boy makes his own note, "Take all you want. God is watching the apples."

A bank robber pulls out gun points it at the teller, and says, "Give me all the money or you're geography!" The puzzled teller replies, "Did you mean to say 'or you're history?'" The robber says, "Don't change the subject!"

For a period, Houdini used a trap door in every single show he did...I guess you could say it was a stage he was going through.

Q: If April showers bring may flowers, what do mayflowers bring?

A: Pilgrims!

Two gold fish are in a tank. One looks at the other and says, "You know how to drive this thing?!"

How does NASA organize a party?

They planet.
