Worshipful Masters Message

Prudence

"Know when to fold them, know when to hold them..."

These words are from a song popularized by artist Kenny Rogers. His character was a professional gambler. He gained experience knowing what to do and when. I was told by a professional gambler I met at a seminar years ago that was a lesson hard learned. Knowing when to walk away from a situation and when to go forward.

Prudence is the top of virtues. It is from the Latin prudentia or foresight. Cicero spoke of it as a rhetorical norm of knowing when to speak and when to be silent. His thoughts were that it was gained over time and that one governed oneself by reasoning.

Being slow to speak but with good intent is vital for any organization to thrive. Offering advice with solutions is the better part of valor. It states the character of the individual Giving those words of teaching or encouragement. It goes a long way in aiding the endeavors of Those who are making the effort. Don't second guess. Give aid and an encouraging hand.

"Finally, Brethren, be ye all of one mind..."
Fraternally,
W.B. Jerry Barnish, Master 2023
