Worshipful Masters Message

Brethren,

The words and symbolism in our degree work have practical and everyday life value.

At the beginning of his Masonic career, each candidate for initiation is instructed that “Freemasonry is a beautiful system of morality, veiled in allegory and illustrated by symbols. The design of the Masonic Institution is to make its members wiser, better, and consequently, happier”. To that end, we are reminded by symbols to circumscribe our desires and to keep our passions within due bounds. Our Lodges are universally opened with a prayer. In many jurisdictions, we beseech the Grand Architect of the Universe, whom each of use worships privately, in his own way, to grant that the sublime principles of Freemasonry may so subdue every discordant passion within us, so harmonize and enrich our hearts.

Our degrees teach and constantly remind us of our duties to ourselves and our fellow creatures. In the Entered Apprentice degree, we are taught to extend true charity, but also that more noble charity of mind and spirit that inspires us to help every other human being who is in need. We are reminded to act with Temperance, Fortitude, Prudence, and Justice.

The Fellowcraft Degree instructs us to engage ourselves in the pursuit of knowledge, not just during the degree, but always. In particular, it encourages us to study the classical liberal arts and sciences, which lead to a liberal and enlightened mind, free from the prejudices of culture, ethnic, racial and religious. It could hardly be any other way, for we are also taught that Masonry is universal. By so freeing our hearts and consciences from all the prejudices, we are taught that we will EARN, not be given, wages of spiritual nourishment, refreshment, and joy.

The Sublime Degree of Master Mason goes even further. It is called “sublime,” that is “elevated in thought”, because it teaches us of our further duties to each other and to all mankind. In the MM Degree, we undertake certain serious and solemn obligations to each other as brothers. But these duties are not exclusive to us. The true and mature Mason understands that they apply to all persons in every situation. We bind ourselves to each other only as a starting point, a point from which the real Mason travels onward.

The Master Mason degree, however, comes with a warning. That warning is conveyed in the most dramatic fashion. It is that we must guard against the worst ruffians of our natures and oppose them, even to death, if we hope to be placed as living stones in that “House not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.” We must act, not just hope. The Master’s degree also informs us that the secret work of a Master Mason has been lost to us through our faithless desires and passions-the ruffians that confront us daily and to which we soon often succumb. It is our duty to seek out that secret word. By subduing our passions and controlling our desires, we may hope to obtain and understand it.

One does not truly become a Master Mason by simply being raised. Rather one becomes a Master by truly embracing and living that which our ceremonies teach. In the end, it is up to each of us to become a Master Mason in spirit as well as in body. Only then will one be worthy to receive the true secret word of a Master Mason. Whether one ever reaches that goal, whether one ever becomes worthy to be placed as a living stone in that celestial Temple, will be known only to him and to our Infinite Creator when he finally stands before Him. Therefore, it is well that we constantly strive to make smooth our rough natures by embracing and following the great lessons of Freemasonry-the lessons taught by symbols and allegories in the Three Degrees-in all our thoughts and actions inside the Lodge, as well as in the world.

Sincerely and Fraternally

Edward S. Bohi
