Worshipful Masters Message

Brethren,

As this crazy year is nearing its end, I can't help but think about the next 2 months and what they mean. Traditionally, November has always kicked of the holiday season. We celebrate Thanksgiving at the end of this month when many of us sit down to a wonderful dinner with family and friends and give thanks for what we have. It shouldn't be the only time of the year that we do this. Even in a year where so many things were turned upside down, there is still so much to be thankful for. We all had a difficult year, but we can't forget that, despite what has happened. I rise every day and think about the situations we face and I thank God that we have remained strong and stand together. I'm thankful that we have started to meet again after such a long absence. I'm thankful that our Lodge is getting back together and that each day we continue to move forward. I'm thankful that we all have remained healthy during this insane situation. Too often we don't realize how lucky we all are. There is an old saying that goes "stand up and smell the roses". It's so easy to get complacent in our daily lives and forget to be thankful for what we have. We don't stop and think about all the people, in the past, who have lived through times much worse than we have experienced this year. A peruse of any history books, will show that there have been many difficult times. People in the past have united and stood strong through these times and afterward, remembered to give thanks to God for their fortunes. We need to never forget what we have experienced in the past and lean on each other through difficult times. When we start our journey into Masonry, you first prepared to be a Mason in your heart and throughout that journey, many promises and obligations are sworn. These are not just words and actions that we make and then just forget. We may have prepared to be a Mason in our heart, but our words and actions should continue to come from our heart for the rest of our lives. This is what makes us different from the rest of the world.

Worshipful Masters Message Contunued

We are always under the scrutiny of the public and they don't miss a trick. We must lead the way to show everyone what we stand for. In this coming season, we can begin to show others what we are all about but we can't stop there. As Brothers we need to continue to communicate the words and actions for all to see and lead by example. I ask the Supreme Architect of the Universe to bless us all and watch over us always. Brethren, remember to be thankful to God and each other for everything in your life. Thanksgiving dinner only comes once a year, but being thankful is something we can show every day. Never forget your promises and obligations.

Be safe and healthy brethren, Fraternally, William Roche Worshipful Master

Candidates as of November 2020

NAME	STATUS	LAST DATE	NEXT STATUS	NEXT DATE

Brethren, there's lots of activity in and about the apartments of the Temple in regard to new Petitions. At this time, we have 5 new Candidates interested in joining our Brotherhood. More detail as we move forward. Enjoy your Thanksgiving. It's been a challenging year to say the least. Keep positive and know things will improve. This too shall pass.
