Worshipful Masters Message

Greetings Brothers,

As the summer comes to an end of another year, I reflect on the past and think how different this year was from past years. We have dealt with many things this year that we never have before in our lifetimes. This isn't the first time that negative things have happened to us. In past years we as a society and a Fraternity have experienced many things that have tested our will, wars, economic downfalls, famines and even pandemics. Some of us may have been through these things before, but it's always difficult and never easy to adjust. We have been asked to sacrifice many things during this particular pandemic but as before, we will get through this. As days pass, more orders from our government are starting to relax. Next begins the task of reopening our Lodge and to start conducting business and doing degrees again. As we return to a somewhat normal lifestyle, please keep in mind that we have a responsibility to ourselves and each other. Social guidelines are still in place for all our safety. Now, more than ever we must continue to look out for each other and demonstrate what it is to be a member of this great Fraternity.

Times have changed through the years and we have changed as a society in the way we deal with these things, but some things remain a constant. Remaining strong and together helps us through trying times. Never underestimate the strength and power of our Fraternity. Keep it strong by participating and staying involved.

As the year winds down, we will be looking forward to a new year and a new Master who hopefully will experience better times and future growth. Some of that growth will begin this year with the 18th district's one day class this September 26. We should all look forward to this exciting day when we can welcome new Brothers to the flock. This will be an outside event so hopefully many of you come out and support this Masonic celebration.

As an E/A there are three great duties you are charged to inculcate--- to God, to your neighbor, and to yourself. As a F/C you are expected to conform to the principals of the Fraternity. As a M/M let no motive make you swerve from your duty, violate your vows or betray your trust; but be true and faithful. These "charges" that you received, should govern the way you live and act.

Be safe and healthy brethren. Fraternally, William Roche Worshipful Master
